We, the class of nineteen hundred and sixty-two, dedicate this edition of the "Abenaki" to

MR. RUSSELL K. NOYES, PRINCIPAL

Mr. Noyes' patience and understanding coupled with his administrative ability have won the lasting admiration and friendship of our class. Under his guidance during the last year and a half, Wells High School has prospered and grown. Our association with him has been a rewarding and enriching experience.

FACULTY

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

MR. ROBERT W. JOHNSON, SUPERINTENDENT

Education is a privilege. Our forefathers made great sacrifices to establish the American Public School System which guarantees a free public education through high school to all deserving American youth. In the early history of our country education was recognized as desirable. Today, a good education is more necessary than ever before. Many industries will not grant a job interview unless one has a high school diploma. Many demand a college background for executive positions.

Make YOUR high school career worthwhile. Plan your selection of courses to lead on to something, either to higher education or to a better place in today's world of work.

Above all else, be thankful that you live in America where you can be trained along lines of your own choice. YOUR life is what YOU make it. We, parents and teachers, stand ready to help in any way we can.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

MR. RUSSELL K. NOYES, PRINCIPAL

Our society today makes more demands upon you young people than ever before. It becomes increasingly difficult for you to live up to your convictions as to how you want to live. Pressures cause you to give in and do things the easy way. If you are not strong in your stand to defend your beliefs, you will find that you soon will become one of the many people who do not defend their ideals because they fear that they will be critized by those who disagree. As a result, you, as with many of the others, will follow the path of least resistance. Such a path never leads to accomplishments which are needed to better the society in which we live. Remember, progress was never made except at the expense of those people who truly believe in what they were doing and, therefore, took a stand in behalf of their beliefs.

As you travel through life, have faith in and love for your fellow human beings. Have compassion, love, tolerance, and understanding for those around you and you will never be without peace of mind.

MR. DONALD J. GOODWIN
Assistant Principal

University of Massachusetts, B.S.

Filling the position of vice principal is a capable member of the faculty, Mr. Goodwin. His assistance has proved invaluable to Mr. Noyes. In addition, he teaches sciences and advises the very active Science Club. This year he guided the workings of the Student Council campaign and elections and continued to assist the Student Council throughout the year. If ever a student needs aid, whether scientific or other, Mr. Goodwin is always willing to lend a helping hand.

MR. RICHARD J. WAKELY
Guidance Counselor

Bates, A.B.

With the second year of Mr. Wakely's teaching at Wells High comes the fulfillment of a position vital to the school, but never before filled. This position is guidance counselor. Mr. Wakely has undertaken the task of advising students in such things as courses, subjects, choice of and enrollment in colleges. His advice has been of special aid to the Seniors. As if this job in itself were not enough, he also teaches three periods of English a day, and coaches J. V. basketball. Through his deep understanding of the students as individuals and his sparkling wit, Mr. Wakely has won the admiration and friendship of all of the students.

MISS ETHEL M. WEYMOUTH

Bates College, A.B.; Cornell, M.S.

Miss Weymouth is our devoted instructor of mathematics and chemistry. Her dedication to her work and her ability have been recently recognized nationally by the publication, LEADERS IN AMERICAN SCIENCE, which described her work as "providing opportunity in the small high school." This truth is further brought out by the testimony of students who, through the guidance and instruction of Miss Weymouth, have been able to progress in higher education.

Wishing you much success in the words of your choice.
Ethel M. Weymouth

MISS MARION W. DAVIS

State Teachers' College, Framingham, Massachusetts
Nasson, A.B.

Miss Davis has charge of the home economics department and assists the girls who are interested in careers in that field. From her room issue the most luscious smells in the school. Miss Davis is also the dean of girls.

MISS MARIE L. HATCH

Radcliffe College, A.B.
Nasson College; Gray's Business College

It is a known fact that Wells High School could not be run efficiently without Miss Hatch, our able commercial teacher. Besides teaching eight classes each day, she sees that all mimeographed sheets and other paper work are completed satisfactorily and on time. In addition, she is official bookkeeper for the school.

MRS. PEARL W. WAKELY

Bates, A.B.

Mrs. Wakely is the competent head of the English department and a well-liked member of Wells High School's faculty. Her lively interesting classes compensate for the lengthy homework assignments which she doles out to her hard-working students. Mrs. Wakely is also advisor to the senior class.

MR. ROBERT A. ARLIN

University of New Hampshire, B.S.

Being advisor to the freshman class, and teaching P.O.D., American History, and World History, provides Mr. Arlin with a full schedule. Yet, he still finds time to coach the boys' varsity basketball and baseball teams. In addition to these activities, he is working on his Master's Degree at Northeastern University.

MR. FRED S. STROUT

Barrington College, B.A.

Mr. Strout is a new member of the faculty this year. He teaches general math, algebra, geometry, and P.O.D., and is advisor to the Abenaki staff. In November he took on the added responsibility of helping with the newly formed school newspaper. His enthusiasm for and interest in the school has won him many friends.

MR. CARL E. MERRILL

Gorham State Teacher's College, B.S.

Mixing knowledge with an atmosphere of understanding and friendship seems to be Mr. Merrill's unfailing recipe for successful teaching of a shop course. Mr. Merrill not only is the devoted cross country, track, and assistant football coach, but has also undertaken the instruction of an arts and crafts course and a mechanical drawing course this year.

MISS ELIZABETH M. SNOW

St. Joseph's College, B.A.

Miss Snow is another addition to our teaching staff this year. She teaches Latin I, II, and III, and French I and II. She has also organized the very successful Modern Dance Club which presented "Peter and the Wolf" at the Christmas Concert. The community feels that this is an outstanding contribution to the school curriculum.

MR. GEORGE L. LANGILLE

Springfield College, B.P.E.

Mr. Langille is our physical education teacher this year, and coaches girls' basketball and softball. He also teaches hygiene and drivers' education. His easy-going nature makes him an agreeable teacher.

MR. VINCENT R. TRENCIA

University of Maine, B.A.

Another welcome member to the faculty this year is Mr. Trencia. Being football coach, junior class advisor, and instructor of general science, biology, and civics, he still finds time to attend basketball games and other school functions. His good humor and friendly frankness are genuinely appreciated by the student body.

MRS. EDITH TWAMBLY

Although Mrs. Twambly is kept busy with her job as Mr. Noves' secretary, she is never too busy to help the students with an odd job. Her cheerful disposition and warm smile make her a favorite of both the faculty and the students.

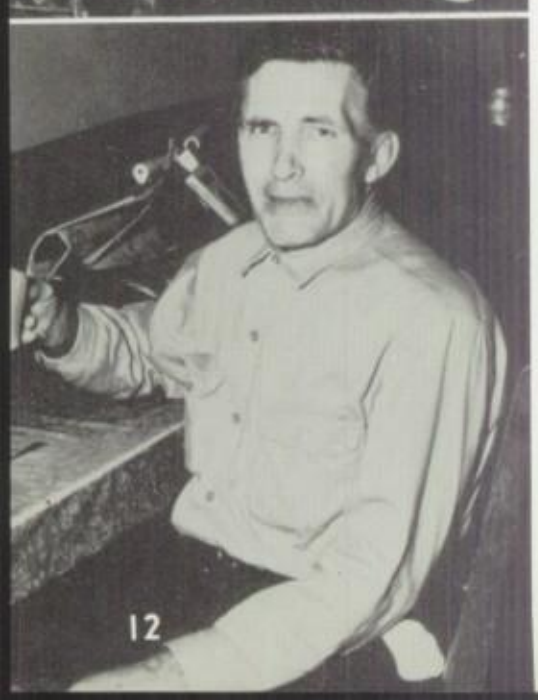
MRS. MAXINE MILLER

It is conforting for the students of Wells High to know that they are safe under the care and observation of our competent nurse, Mrs. Miller. We all appreciate the medical aid she has given each of us at one time or another.

CAFETERIA LADIES

Mrs. Marion Stansfield - Mrs. Jennie Sinclair

These two ladies play a vital role in Wells High School. They ingeniously plan, prepare, and serve thousands of tempting meals for the ever-hungry students and teachers of the school.



MR. LUC CYR

One of the most common and most used phrases around Wells High is, "Go get Luc; he'll help you." Mr. Fix-it himself, Luc, is a hard working janitor. Without his help and pleasant personality, Wells High would certainly be at a loss.

Scholarship, sportsmanship, and leadership - sophomores excel in all areas. Money making projects for the year included dances and food sales, even though the class will not be going to Washington during its senior year.

On September 12, 1961, Room 5 became alive and buzzing with the eager voices of sixty-seven freshmen. It was the largest class ever to enter the high school. After suffering through Freshman Initiation and becoming official members of Wells High, they contributed their share of dances, food sales, and other money raising schemes to the school's extracurricular activities.

Sweet memories!

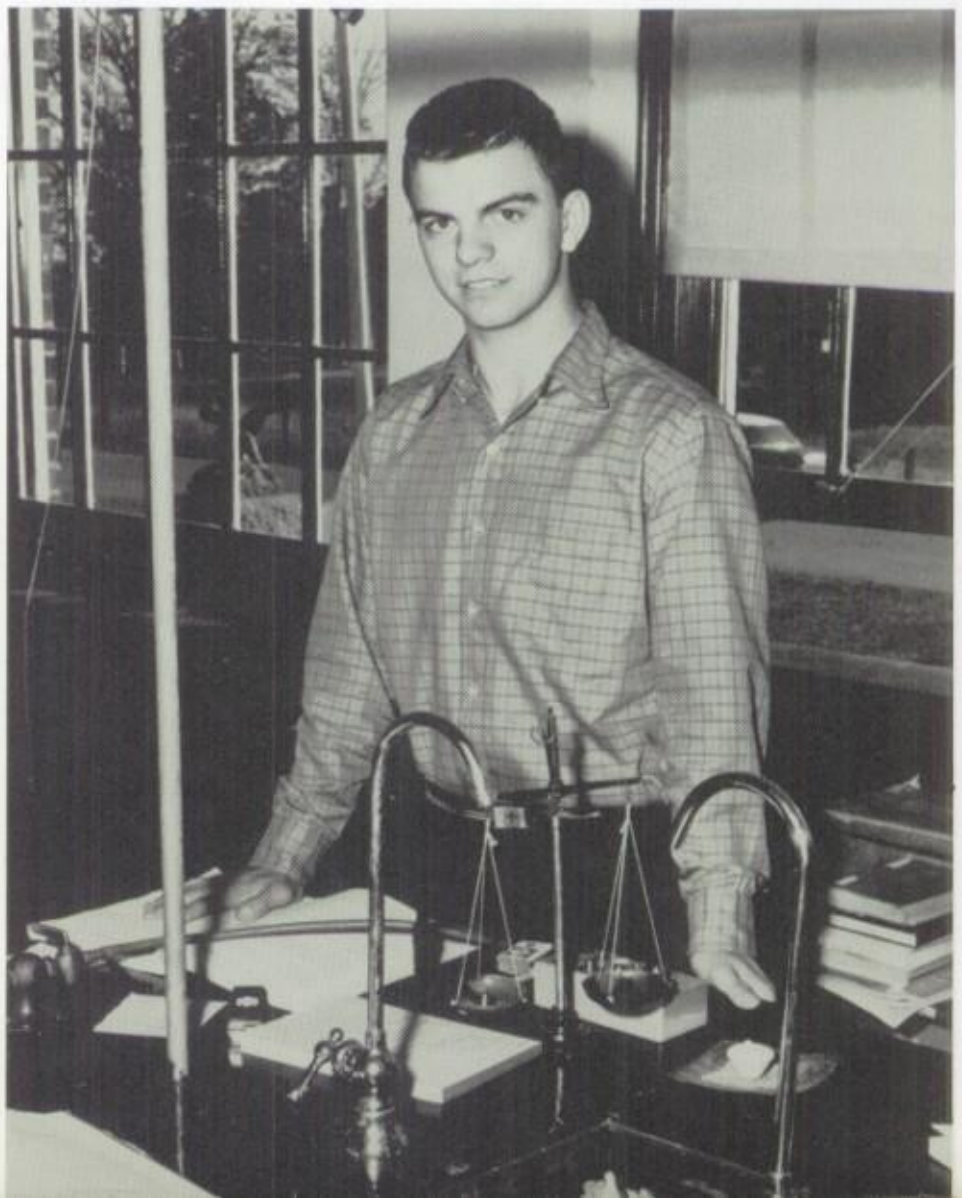
Her credits over the four years include four units of English, two units of Latin, three units of math, four units in science, one unit of domestic arts, one unit of typing, two units in the social studies field, and one unit of physical education. These courses will enable her to gain admittance to the college of her choice.

In preparation for becoming an engineer, William MacDonald has taken the scientific course. His credits for the four years include four units of English, four units of math, four units in science, two units of Latin, one unit of French, one unit of shop, two units in the field of social studies, and one unit of physical education.



Darlene Bridges has chosen to complete the commercial course. To her credit she has four units of English, two units of history, two units of science, one unit of general business, three units of typing, two units of bookkeeping and two units of shorthand. The completion of this course enables Darlene to secure employment in the secretarial field when she graduates.

The practical arts field is represented by Reginald Chase and Ruth Clarrage. The standard requirements (four units of English, one unit of American History, and one unit of P.O.D.) have been supplemented by four years of shop for Reginald and four year of home economics for Ruth. Other subjects of their own choosing have fulfilled their requirements.

This year the Abenaki staff faced the task of putting together a yearbook with enthusiasm and crossed fingers. After hours of working on ads, attending conventions, compiling data, taking pictures, and typing, the proud staff presents the 1962 Abenaki, your yearbook. The members hope that this pictorial record of the school year will bring the student body a great deal of enjoyment.

This year Wells High School initiated a new organization - a school newspaper. Although only published once every two weeks, the WARRIOR requires hard work of its staff. Coverage of school events and delving into new and stimulating facets of school life keep its members busy. Next year it is hoped the newspaper will be sent out for printing with the funds raised this year by mimeographing the issues with the school machine. Thinking back on laborious hours after school mixed with many humorous incidents, the staff looks forward to next year with the thought, "The first year is always the hardest."

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Patricia Fuller, Constance Higgins, Francis Mithen, Charlene Cole, Karen Ahern.

Members of the National Honor Society were selected by a group of faculty members on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Membership in the society is the highest honor attainable by high school students. With their advisor, Mr. Noyes, the group cooperated with the Student Council to revise the student handbook. Officers included Francis Mithen, President, Charlene Cole, Vice President, Patricia Fuller, Second Vice President, Constance Higgins, Secretary, and Karen Ahern, Treasurer.

LIBRARIANS

Gary Littlefield, Darlene Bridges, William MacDonald, Joan Ladderbush, Wallace Stevens, Barbara Elwell, Patricia Fuller, James Mavel, Kenneth Bassett, Charlene Cole, Karen Ahern, Bonnie Larrow, Barbara Pisaruk.

Our librarians consist of friendly hard-working students who are always willing to lend a hand to anyone who needs assistance in the library. By enforcing the library regulations, they keep our library in top condition for studying and research work. Miss Weymouth's helpers make it possible for the library to remain at the service of the students and teachers from 8:00 in the morning until 3:30 in the afternoon.

STUDENT COUNCIL

This year the Student Council officers were chosen in a school election which capped a busy week of frantic campaigning. Each class and club then elected one representative to the council. A week-long Winter Carnival and a Career Week were its two major projects for the year. In addition Student Council members fed visiting football teams during the fall, sponsored assemblies, and helped revise the student handbook. Mr. Goodwin was advisor for the organization.

This is the second year that Wells High has had a Science Club. The organization has provided an opportunity for students in the scientific field to express their ideas to others. Being affiliated with the Science Club of America, the members have had two main projects this year - the annual Science Fair and the purchasing of a weather station for the benefit of both club and school.

SECOND ROW: James Wentworth, Suzanne Collins, Karen Coombs, Jean Tilton, Bonnie Larrow, Sandra Clogston, Sherri Hobson, Martha Hilton, Carolyn Winn, Charlene Cole, Gary Littlefield.

The Future Business Leaders of America, a new club inaugurated into the extracurricular activities of Wells High, proved to be successful in obtaining money for a scholarship. This scholarship will be given to a student who plans to further his education in business. Some of the money-raising schemes included a bottle drive, fudge sales, a supper, a dance, and selling refreshments at school functions. Also included in its program were speakers.

The officers included Patricia Fuller, President, Darlene Bridges, Vice President, Bonnie Larrow, Secretary, James Wentworth, Treasurer, and Carolyn Winn, Reporter.

GLEE CLUB

Under the direction of Mrs. Agnes Tibbetts, the Glee Club has brought many honors to Wells High School. Participating in the Christmas Concert and attending the Concert Festival were among the activities of the chorus this year. Its purpose of bringing good music to the high school has been most successfully accomplished.

MR. EVERETT FIRTH

Strike up the band! Truer words will never be spoken. Wells' band has performed at a variety of activities this year. At several home football games the band provided half-time entertainment for the many spectators. The band played at the Christmas Concert and took part in the first annual exchange concert with Hinsdale High School. Director Mr. Everett Firth was once again responsible for the band's many fine performances.

MAJORETTES

Charlene Cole, Bonnie Gough, Faye Hatch, Constance Higgins, Bonita Metcalf, Judith Fellman.

Wells High School can well be proud of its majorettes. With rythm and spirit they have added sparkle to our band this year. Perky Connie and her majorettes withstood the bitter cold at football games and stiffling heat at music festivals to give precision to the band. It was a job well done.

Their vim and vigor urge our team to victory - Their lusty yells fill every silence - They are the Varsity Cheerleaders of Wells High School. They practice with enthusiasm that they might direct our cheers with fervor. In addition, the cheerleaders take charge of various other activities including the serving of refreshments to opposing teams at home football games, cheering at assemblies and pep rallies.

Sandra Davis, Judith Cote, Paula Thyng, Marsha Benni, Lorraine Boulet. ABSENT: Deborah Densmore, Nina Mattei.

Our sprightly Junior Varsity Cheerleaders have contributed their time and energy to the development of a lively, well-trained squad. Keeping the pep and school spirit up at Wells High is their main task. Under the able leadership of head cheerleader Paula Thyng, they have accomplished this most successfully. The boys on the Junior Varsity are very appreciative of their efforts.

THIRD ROW: Walter Bucklin, Richard Hutchins, Robert Hayes, Robert Perry, Martin Freeman, Kenneth Goodale, Ronald Chase, Jeffrey Bridges, Gerald Morin, David Spinney.

Mr. Trencia's first football team played fine games all year ending with a record of 5 and 3. The two first games were lost by a total of 7 points which show the close competition. After winning the next five games, they lost to the State Champs, South Berwick.

Although seniors occupied many key positions, the prospects look good for another successful season.

The Warriors ended the season with a record of six victories and eight defeats. They lost to Berwick in the tournament by a score of 52-48. Although the team was not consistent, it played many fine games.

Seniors composed most of the starting unit, but many promising underclassmen show hope for next year's team.

GIRLS' VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM

Manager Darlene Bridges, Coach Langille, Sharyn Tetherly, Virginia Tufts, Joan Ladderbush, Lorna Littlefield, Virginia Littlefield, Charlene Cole, Martha Clough, Nancy Fernald, Sally Hutchins, Connie Bridges, Sandra Clogston, Colleen Ogilvie.

The Warriorettes ended a very successful year with a record of 11 victories out of 15 tries.

Ginger Littlefield held high scoring honors with 279 points in 15 games, averaging 18.6 points per game.

Sharyn Tetherly and Sandra Clogston followed right behind with an average of 17.7 and 14.8 points respectively. Sandy also contributed her skill to the defense when needed.

Charlene Cole, captain and team playmaker, contributed 95 points to the cause.

As in past years, the defensive unit was one of the strongest in the area. It consisted of Lorna Littlefield, Virginia Tufts, Nancy Fernald, Connie Bridges, and Colleen Ogilvie, who were all instrumental in gaining the many victories.

Sally Hutchins and Joan Ladderbush, offensive reserves, and Judy Young and Martha Clough, defensive reserves, also deserve credit for the highly successful season.

Gary Grant, Richard Hutchins, Jeffrey Bridges, Robert Hayes, Prescott Morrison, Lane Phillips, Donald Bridges, Everett Decatur, Peter Staples, David Littlefield, Robert Gough, Donald Hill, Kenneth Goodale, Douglas Filson, Coach Wakely, Manager James Batcheldor.

The junior varsity, coached by Mr. Wakely had an average season, winning half of the games played. Doug Filson and Donald Bridges were scoring sparks. They were ably assisted by Lane Phillips, Jeffrey Bridges, and Donald Hill. The capable freshmen remaining on the team make the prospects bright for a good season next year, even though several team members will be moving up to the varsity squad.

GIRLS' JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

KNEELING: Victoria Kimball, Micheline Stevens, Patricia Pettingill. STANDING: Linda Ducharme, Jean Jellison, Carol Strout, Donna Lewis, Patricia Maxwell, Coach Langille, Judy Smith, Jackie Low, Linda Mayo, Jean Littlefield, Susan Adams.

The girls' junior varsity should be congratulated for their record of eight wins and only two losses. Standout Pat Maxwell along with Vicky Kimball and Judy Smith who all scored to give many victories. However, this record could not have been obtained with out the help of guards Micheline Stevens, Pat Pettingill and Linda Ducharme. Many of the J. V. players will be needed to help out the varsity next year, but hopes are high for another successful season.

BASEBALL TEAM

The 1961 baseball season was again rather disappointing. In spite of good spirit and high hopes on the part of the team, their record was not too good. Poor weather and stiff competition hampered them. Graduation took only three team members, so prospects look good for a winning team in the spring of 1962.

SOFTBALL

Six wins out of nine starts tells the story of the 1961 softball team. Ginger Littlefield and Ruth Clarrage held the highest batting averages, with .545 each. Vicki Kimball, outstanding freshman shortstop, followed with an average of .531.

The most outstanding characteristic of the team was the girls' ability to come from behind in the last few innings. This happened in five out of the six games won.

With all players returning, next year should prove to be even more outstanding.

TRACK TEAM

The 1961 Track season was a disappointing one to the team who lost the State Track Meet by only one point. However, aside from that, the Warrior tracksters, as usual, racked up an impressive record.

Outstanding boys on the team were Stan Adams in the javelin and hurdles, Bruce Brown in the broad jump and dashes, Ray Goodale in high jump, Gerald Clarrage in pole vault, and Gary Hearrin in shotput and discus.

The future is bright for the trackmen, who have their sights fixed on another state championship this year.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

The 1961 cross country team was not too successful, winning only one meet. Letter winners this year included Captain Russell Johnson, Jay Smith, Raymond Gregoire, Dana Brindle, Lane Phillips, Everett Decatur, and Manager Peter Joy. These boys participate in a rigorous sport. Surely they deserve the admiration and encouragement of the student body.
